Check before you publish: rest between shifts (UK: 11 hours under WTR reg. 10, unless the security exemption in reg. 21(b) applies, then compensatory rest under reg. 24), cover on every day and night, licences valid for every officer on the post.
Changes after publication: initial and date the cell, and tell the officer in writing.

Worked example: one post 24/7, 4-on-4-off

AL	Annual leave / PTO	S	Sick	O	Off

Each officer works two 12-hour days, two 12-hour nights, then four days off. The rows are offset by two days, so every day and every night has one officer. Over eight days each officer works 48 hours (42 a week on average). Rest between the second day shift and the first night shift: 24 hours. The Excel version continues the pattern for the whole month.
